"DANCE OF LIETUVA" PROOFREAD

While everyone was busy Xmas shopping and spending money, yours truly spent several weeks, as well as Christmas, proofreading and adding final touches to his new book on Lithuanian dances, THE DANCE OF LIETUVA. To his assistance came Bud Tygett, a well known Chicago dancer who rechecked the text and descriptions, and Algis Urbutis, who did the rechecking on the Lith text. The book contains 55 dances and a great number of pictures taken in two continents, diagrams and beautiful drawings by Robert Treonis. We hope that by the time the next issue of VILTIS reaches you it will carry the good news that the DANCE OF LIETUVA is in the mail.

FOLK DANCING AT MCCORMICK Y.W.C.A.

CHICAGO PARKS ENTERTAIN ETHNIC LEADERS

On January 10th, Mr. Kenneth Carrington of the Chicago Park District, Recreational Department, entertained about two dozen leaders of various ethnic groups at the fancy Normandy House with a lavish and generous dinner.

At that meeting discussions were held as to "how the various nationality folk dance groups could work together for their betterment and in which manner the facilities of the Park System could be made available to those who might require them". At the same meeting, Mr. Ray Thompson, of the Publicity Department, revealed that Chicago was presented by the the people of Japan with 3000 cherry blooming (Sukuru) trees. Discussions were also on the floor regarding the instituting of an annual Chicagoland Folk Festival. A temporary committee was elected composed of the following people: V. F. Beliajus (Lithuanian), Paul Dunsing iGerman), Harald Thorsen (Norwegian) Arne Aalrust (Norwegian) and George Marks (Greek).

Present at the meeting were representatives of the following ethnic groups: Lithuanian (2), Hungarian (4), Norwegian (3), German (2), Polish (2), Scotch (1), Irish (1), Greek (2), Japanese (2), Czech (2), Sweden (2), Mexico (1).
